

Howdy Week Event Description

Howdy Week is Aggieland's official Week of Welcome. This week is full of events and opportunities for thousands of new and returning students to become familiar or reacquainted with the TAMU campus, fellow Aggies, and the Bryan/College Station community. Howdy Week is coordinated by the Office of New Student & Family Programs and takes place the week before the Fall Semester at Texas A&M University.

Howdy Week 2019 is Sunday, August 18 through Sunday, August 25. Howdy Week provides students an opportunity to learn more about the campus, each other, and college life in general through a series of educational and social events sponsored by university departments, colleges, student organizations, residence halls, and community members. Currently enrolled students who participate become eligible for prizes, free food, and gain valuable knowledge, insight, and connections.

Howdy Week is a great way to showcase your academic college, organization, department or area by sponsoring an on campus event open to the student body.

Howdy Week Events must be sponsored by a University office, department or registered Student Organization as defined by Student Activities. Tabling is not considered an event and will not be listed in the Howdy Week Schedule. Student organizations are limited to 5 proposals for Howdy Week 2019. Also, events cannot overlap with the following 2019 Featured Events:

Backyard Bash, August 19, 4-6pm	Sponsored by Aggie Transition Camps
University Libraries Open House, August 20, 11am-2pm	Sponsored by University Libraries
